

Crucible 2002

A Gathering of Alchemists

Saturday, October 12, 2002, in Sacramento.

This year's all-day alchemy workshop features effective training in both physical and spiritual techniques.

This experiential, multimedia event offers demonstrations of spiritual, physical, and bodily methods of alchemical transformation and will include live experiments and actual meditations used by the alchemists. Certificates of attendance will be issued for credit through Flamel College and credit will be given in the Alchemy Home Study Program. There will also be a vendor area of books, tinctures, essential oils, audio tapes, videos, and many more unique products.

The alchemists tried not only to change base metals into gold but also rejuvenate their bodies, integrate their personalities, and perfect the very essence of their souls. Though they spoke of retorts, furnaces, and chemicals, they were really talking about changes taking place in their own bodies, minds, and souls. Journey with bestselling author and practicing alchemist Dennis William Hauck to the hidden side of reality where our true power lies. Experience all three levels of alchemical transformation – the physical, the mental, and the spiritual – using the same powerful operations used by the alchemists.

Board the Delta King Conference Center, on the riverfront of Old Town Sacramento, for this all-day multimedia seminar designed to initiate you into the deepest secrets of alchemy in the most direct and no-nonsense way.

The Delta King is a five-story, 300-foot luxury riverboat with a spacious theater, seven large meeting rooms, a comfortable bar/lounge, and an award-winning restaurant. Built in 1928, it was recently renovated to become what USA Today calls "a unique meeting place with AAA five-diamond ratings." The center is located on the tree-lined River Walk trail and close to parks, malls, and museums.
